

Creating a Campus Culture Where Every Student Graduates

David Laude

Senior Vice Provost

Enrollment and Curriculum Management

The University of Texas at Austin

utexas.edu/enrollment-management

A close-up photograph of a person's hands holding a booklet titled '2014 FRESHMAN ORIENTATION'. The booklet features the University of Texas logo and a blue sky with clouds. The text 'A Transformative Institutional Message' is overlaid in a white semi-transparent box.

A Transformative Institutional Message

Every student graduates

A photograph of four students in a study hall or library. A woman in a white shirt is writing in a notebook, while a man in a white shirt looks on. Another student is visible on the left, and a fourth on the right. The background features a bulletin board with various photos and papers, and a wooden wall. The text "Data Informs Every Decision" is overlaid in the center.

Data Informs Every Decision

UT Students Carry a 4YGR% with their GPA

Cracking the Academic Calendar

Last year UT's Major Switch program saved the academic careers of 29 freshmen

Cracking the Credit Hour

Why is a high school AP exam worth more toward a degree than a first author journal article?

A photograph of students in a workshop or classroom setting. A woman on the left is gesturing with her hand while speaking. A young man in a light blue shirt is leaning forward, looking intently at something on the table. Other students are partially visible in the foreground and background. The scene is brightly lit with natural light from windows in the background.

Incentivized Financial Aid

93% 1st year persistence in UT's
University Leadership Network

Students are Scholars First

1400 UT freshmen with lowest 4YGR% are in success programs emphasizing scholarship

Community Built on Scholarship

All 7,200 of UT's freshmen are in a 360 Connections small community

Kill the Grading Curve

I am proud that flipping my chemistry class doubled the number of As

A group of four students are engaged in field research outdoors. In the foreground, a male student in a grey t-shirt is using a handheld compass to determine orientation. Next to him, a female student with blonde hair in a ponytail is holding a blue pen over a clipboard. To the left, another female student in a white tank top is looking down at a clipboard that features a topographic map. In the background, a male student in an orange t-shirt with '2005 NATIONALS TEXAS' and a longhorn logo is also observing. They are situated on a rocky, uneven terrain under a clear blue sky. A semi-transparent white banner with the text 'Experiential Learning' is overlaid across the middle of the image.

Experiential Learning

900 Student in UT's Freshman Research Initiative

Faculty Mentoring

Faculty are role models for our profession

A Transformative Institutional Message

Every student graduates

Questions?

