

"THERE IS NO POWER FOR CHANGE
LIKE A COMMUNITY DISCOVERING WHAT IT CARES ABOUT"

- Margaret Wheatley, Turning to One Another

Community: A Place Filled With Care

Care remains invisible unless you have conversations about what people care about.

People may not care about what you want them to care about.

Care must be discovered through relationships that are built on purpose.

Learning conversations are the way to build relationships that make care visible.

Building Block of Community

Individuals with gifts

Associations

Congregations

Non Profits

Government

Businesses

Local economy

Physical world

Woven through by willingness to act on care revealed by listening & asking

.....

Individual interests to common interests

- Find Assets
- Mobilize Assets
- Connect Assets

LISTENING

ASKING

LEARNING CONVERSATIONS

Care= Motivation to Act "What will I go out the door and do something about?"

Concerns — what I don't want to happen

Dreams — what I want to create

Gifts to give

Reflect: how do I know when I have heard something that the person is motivated to act on vs. just an opinion?

Less Successful

Start with the answer

Decide on an answer and try to get people involved in doing our answer.

More Successful

Starting with learning conversations

How do people see the situation?

What do people have?

What do people want to offer?

ANSWERS

OR

QUESTIONS

NEED

WANT

SERVICES

MOBILIZE ASSETS

CONSUMERS

PEOPLE

TO GET THE RIGHT DUCKS YOU NEED THE RIGHT DUCK CALL!

The Right Ducks — Connector leaders have trust, influence, and a following

The Right Duck Call — Discovering what people care enough about to act on.

A community is mobilized through relationships and motivation to act.

Community Partnerships That Really Work

WELL CONNECTED LEADERS CAN ENGAGE THE WIDER COMMUNITY
TO ACT ON WHAT THEY CARE ABOUT