Guiding Ideas

Everyone's world grows more interesting when there are more opportunities for these valued experiences.

John & Connie O'Brien

Mistaken beliefs and prejudiced actions expose people with developmental disabilities to these world-shrinking vulnerabilities.

John & Connie O'Brien

Services can either reinforce this pattern of vulnerability or support people to resist the negative by learning how to create these service accomplishments.

John & Connie O'Brien

Services that choose to act like bridges Instead of like walls that divide communities will support people with disabilities and their allies as they engage these community challenges.
