How to Join a Club

1. Find a club that interests you. Use your DePaul login to access OrgSync (orgsync.depaul.edu). You can scroll through all DePaul Student Organizations, search “Club Sports” in the search box at the top, or search for a specific sport. All Club sports are also listed at go.depaul.edu/clubsports.

2. Each club does things a little differently. Check the club’s page to learn how they add members to their club. Some clubs have tryout dates at the beginning of each quarter while others are open to anyone. Some clubs charge dues while others are free. Some clubs also have community nights or allow you to attend 2-3 practices, so you can see if you like it before committing. If it’s not clear how to join, e-mail the club contact listed on their page or the Assistant Director of Club Sports at mkrone2@depaul.edu.

3. Once you’re ready to join, login into OrgSync and go to that club’s page. (You can search for it at the top of the page.) On the right side of the tool bar, there’s a button that says, “Settings.” Click that and then “Join Now.” For some, that’s all you need to do while other clubs require club officers approval.

4. Complete the liability waiver: https://orgsync.com/39811/forms/263758

5. Clubs that travel will have additional requirements. See the travel section of the Club Resources page at go.depaul.edu/clubsports

Contact the Assistant Director of Club Sports, Megan Krone, at mkrone2@depaul.edu if you have any questions.
