

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A MAJOR IN MANAGEMENT?

Management is a major within the Driehaus College of Business, and has six concentrations of which students can select one: General Management, Leadership and Change Management, Entrepreneurship, Operations Management, Human Resources and Sports Management. The Management major emphasizes tackling relevant issues for today's manager: managing in the global economy, ethical and socially responsible decision-making, managing for total quality, employee empowerment, leadership, team performance and compensation, new venture creation, and conflict resolution.

This document covers career options for the General Management concentration. Research the other concentrations at careercenter.depaul.edu. To earn more and hear stories straight from alumni who concentrated their studies in this area visit ask.depaul.edu!
