DePaul is the largest Catholic university and the 13th-largest private, not-for-profit institution of higher learning in the country. The university enrolls about 22,700 students in 10 colleges and schools and offers a wide range of academic and professional programs on three Chicago-area campuses. DePaul's reach extends internationally, from degree programs offered in Bahrain to study-abroad opportunities around the globe. With Chicago, the metropolitan area and the world as its classroom, DePaul has a reputation for innovative courses and personalized instruction. The university is the hub of an innovative and diverse community that enables students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends to advance personally, professionally and intellectually.

Founded by Vincentian Fathers in 1898 to teach the children of immigrants, DePaul remains committed to students from a broad range of cultural backgrounds, especially first-generation and non-traditional students. Named for and inspired by the life of St. Vincent de Paul, the university has a distinct mission: to foster through higher education a deep respect for the God-given dignity of all persons, especially the materially, culturally and spiritually deprived; and to instill in its students a dedication to the service of others.

The Vision 2018 strategic plan is concluding six years of initiatives that solidify DePaul's place among the most exceptional urban universities in the world. Our four-year graduation rate is at an all-time high, national ranking is the best in a decade and diversity has reached record levels.

DePaul's distinguished colleges and schools are known for the excellence of their academic programs and the achievement of their students.

The College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences encompasses more than 50 undergraduate and graduate degree programs and 11 centers and institutes. With an overarching emphasis directed toward empowering leadership through the liberal arts, students pursue studies in areas including social and political studies, media and studio art, creative and professional writing, ethics, geographical information systems, forensic archaeology, criminology, public health and modern languages.

Established in the 2011-12 academic year, the College of Science and Health offers its students classroom, laboratory, clinical, research, and field experiences with multiple programs in science, allied health, and technology. The college also houses the Family and Community Services Center, the Institute for Nature and Culture, the Center for Community Research, and the STEM Center.

DePaul's College of Law has been a highly respected name in the Chicago legal community for more than a century and is nationally known for its intellectual property and information technology, health law, public interest law and public service programs, among others. In addition to the Juris Doctor (JD), the College offers seven joint degree programs, four graduate programs and a Master of Jurisprudence. Through the breadth and depth of its curriculum and its extensive opportunities for experiential learning, students are prepared to be lawyers who advance the law and impact Chicago and the world.

The Driehaus College of Business and its Kellstadt Graduate School of Business offer respected programs that provide real-world knowledge and strong connections to the business community. The college houses programs that are nationally recognized, including three top-10 rankings for its accountancy programs based on a Tax Talent survey of hiring managers and top-15 rankings for its undergraduate and graduate entrepreneurship programs from the Princeton Review.

The College of Computing and Digital Media offers a wide range of practical and innovative undergraduate and graduate degree programs. The college houses the School of Computing, which features technical degrees in computing, cybersecurity and computer game and web development; the School of Cinematic Arts, which showcases cinema, animation and screenwriting degrees; and the School of Design, which features degrees in media arts and graphic, game and experience design.

The College of Education's primary mission is to prepare students to become teachers, educational leaders and counselors. Partnerships with the Chicago Public Schools, the archdiocese of Chicago, charter and private schools as well as with social service agencies have enhanced the experiences of faculty, our students and those Chicagoland individuals whose lives they touch.

The School for New Learning is an internationally recognized leader in educating adults, offering flexible undergraduate and graduate programs. It pioneered individualized degree programs, online learning for adult students, the assessment of learning outside the classroom, and competence-based education. Its inventive approach to professional and lifelong learning has been used as a model around the world.

Founded as the Goodman School of Drama in 1925, The Theatre School is the Midwest's oldest theatre conservatory and is renowned as one of the top professional theatre training programs in the United States. A new facility to house the school opened in 2013 and includes a 250-seat thrust theatre and 100-seat black box theatre.

For more than 100 years, the School of Music has been dedicated to excellence in music teaching and performance, with distinguished faculty that include members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Lyric Opera of Chicago. The school offers a robust musical studies department with majors in composition/musicianship, music education, performing arts management, and sound recording technology. The school's new Holtschneider Performance Center will open in fall of 2018.

The College of Communication's programs examine communication in all forms, with an emphasis on research, theory, new technology, media literacy, and ethical practices. Programs include organizational communication; health communication; sports communication; communication and technology; journalism; media and cinema studies and public relations and advertising. Faculty with extensive industry expertise, along with award-winning student-led organizations, have positioned the college as one of the top places to study communication.

DePaul's Irwin W. Steans Center for Community-based Service Learning and Community Service Studies is home to the Egan Office for Urban Education and Community Partnerships and the Asset-Based Community Development Institute. The center is nationally recognized and supports over 3,500 service-learning student placements a year.

DePaul's 15 intercollegiate men's and women's athletic teams are members of the NCAA Division I, BIG EAST Conference. In 2018, the women's basketball team marked its 16th consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. Numerous DePaul teams claimed BIG EAST Team Academic Excellence Awards in recent years.

This year's graduates and DePaul's more than 181,000 living alumni are linked by more than their degrees. DePaul's graduates have succeeded in a learning environment that values both academic achievement and community responsibility—values that will remain with them throughout their lives as they carry on the heritage of St. Vincent de Paul.

THE VINCENTIAN CHARACTER

DePaul, a Catholic, Vincentian and urban university, takes its name from Saint Vincent de Paul. The religious community founded by Saint Vincent, commonly known as "Vincentians," established the university and endowed it with a distinctive spirit: to foster in higher education a deep respect for the God-given dignity of all persons, especially the materially, culturally and spiritually deprived, and to instill in educated persons a dedication to the service of others. The women and men of DePaul have retained this spirit as a highly valued heritage and a vital influence in every succeeding generation of the university's development.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Saint Vincent de Paul (1581–1660), for whom the university is named, lived in seventeenth century France. He was a compassionate and deeply spiritual priest who dedicated his life to serving the poor. He founded the Congregation of the Mission, commonly known as the Vincentians. This is the Roman Catholic religious community that established and continues to sponsor DePaul University.

Vincent brought together and inspired groups of like-minded women and men to join him in addressing the needs of the poor and the reasons for their poverty and marginalization.

Vincent also was a man of wisdom who believed in the power of education to transform the world for the better.

He believed in the sacredness of life and the God-given dignity and inestimable value for each person. He is aptly known as the "Apostle of Charity."

THE COAT OF ARMS

The main section of the shield consists of nine panes forming a heraldic cross, the symbol of the Christian faith. The center pane holds a heart, which represents Saint Vincent de Paul, for whom the university is named. Because he spent his life in the service of God and people, especially the poor, Saint Vincent is considered to be the Apostle of Charity. The pane above the heart holds a crescent symbolizing Mary, the Immaculate Conception, the patroness of the United States.

The upper section contains a fleur-de-lis, symbol of France, Vincent's homeland. Three are shown, representing the Trinity. This section also carries two symbols of Chicago. A line suggestive of the wall of a fort represents Fort Dearborn. The phoenix rising from the flames atop the shield is both a symbol of the Resurrection of Christ and the resurrection of the City of Chicago after the Great Fire of 1871.

The inscription 1898 refers to the year DePaul was first chartered by the State of Illinois as St. Vincent's College. In 1907 a new charter was granted in the name of DePaul University.

The motto of DePaul University, "Viam sapientiae monstrabo tibi," is taken from the biblical book of Proverbs (4:11) and is translated, "I will show you the way of wisdom."

THE TREE OF WISDOM

The symbol expresses the university's integration of education and religion by combining the forms of a tree and a cross. Central to the symbol is a modified cruciform, suggestive of the Catholic roots of the university. This cruciform also is expressive of the human form, with arms uplifted and outstretched to give spirit and life to the environment. The figure stands erect and balanced suggesting a strength of knowledge and values.

Viewing the symbol as a single unit, one sees our "Tree of Wisdom" resting firmly on the ground, with its square base and raised limbs in symmetry. It has age and fullness in its trunk and limbs, suggesting tradition; and youth and simplicity in its internal negative spaces, representing leaf forms suggestive of sapling growth.

Typographically, the symbol incorporates and combines the lower case letterforms d, p and u. The "u" form extending upward from the trunk is a true arc, a section of a perfect circle. Its position relative to the figure represents support, rather than containment, just as the university supports the human spirit in the pursuit of knowledge and the deepening of religious values.

THE BANNERS OF DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

DePaul University and each of its 10 colleges and schools have a distinctive heraldic banner. These banners play a prominent ceremonial role in the university's commencement ceremonies.

The university banner features DePaul's colors, red and blue. The interrelationship between the university and the city is illustrated by the skyline motif.

The banners of each of DePaul's 10 colleges and schools are shown below, in the order in which they became a part of DePaul.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Academic Colors: White for the arts and letters, citron for the social sciences

The alternating panes of color symbolize the interrelationship of the diverse courses of study in the arts and social sciences.

SCHOOL FOR NEW LEARNING

Academic Color: Yellow green

The "gyronny," a heraldic pattern of eight lines radiating out from the center, symbolizes the school's wide-ranging programs of study.

DRIEHAUS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Academic Color: Taupe

The "party per cross" design uses two tinctures to impart the quantitative nature of business enterprise.

THE THEATRE SCHOOL

Academic Color: Brown

The "lozengy," or two-color diamond pattern, symbolizes the arts and also is reminiscent of the harlequin of the Commedia dell'Arte, theatre of the Italian Renaissance.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Academic Color: Pink

Heraldic bars of white against a pink field represent the 10 lines of the musical staff, a translator of the musical language.

COLLEGE OF COMPUTING AND DIGITAL MEDIA

Academic Color: Yellow

The triangular shapes represent the three primary areas of emphasis in the school, and the reversal of colors of the triangles in the squares the fundamental binary nature of computing.

COLLEGE OF LAW

Academic Color: Purple

The double-reversed chevrons illustrate the traditional scales of justice associated with the field of jurisprudence.

COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION

Academic Colors: Silver grey (communication studies) and crimson (mass communication)

The arrows call to mind early communication models representing sender and receiver, but depicted here in a dynamic geometric model that acknowledges the complexity of human and mediated communications.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Academic Color: Light blue

The "saltire" (a corner-to-corner cross) is the heraldic symbol illustrating change and growth, the dual results of the educational process.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE AND HEALTH

Academic Colors: Yellow for the sciences and sage for health

The alternating panes of color symbolize the interrelationship of the diverse courses of study in the sciences and health.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of academic dress dates back to the Middle Ages, when gowns were a common form of attire in early European universities. Since those universities were founded by the church, students were required to wear the prescribed gowns at all times. They represent an adaptation of the cape or mantle worn by religious dignitaries in processions.

The traditional color of academic gowns has been black, but over the years, other colors and styles were adopted. In 1896, the colleges and universities of the United States adopted a uniform code governing academic dress.

The style of gown varies according to the academic degree awarded. The color of the lining of the hood indicates the college or university of the wearer's degree.

For graduates of DePaul University, sky blue with a red chevron is used. The border of the hood is trimmed in a color indicating the field of study. Below is a list of the most common academic colors.

White	Arts and Letters
Scarlet	Theology
Purple	Law
Green	Medicine
Dark Blue	Philosophy
Yellow	Science
Brown	Architecture and the Fine Arts
Pink	Music
Lilac	Dentistry
Orange	Engineering
Olive	Pharmacy
Light Brown	Business
Lemon Yellow	Library Science
Light Blue	Education
Peacock Blue	International Affairs
Citron Yellow	Social Work
Cardinal	Journalism

PLEDGE OF SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Those graduates wearing green ribbons on their gowns today have made a personal commitment to practice social responsibility in their life and work.

THE DEPAUL UNIVERSITY MACE

DePaul University has created, as part of its permanent institutional academic regalia, a university mace. The mace was commissioned by the Office of Mission and Values.

Originally used as a weapon in medieval warfare, the mace has been used ceremonially since the 12th century. Traditionally bearing coats of arms or other heraldic images, the mace was borne in procession—always on the right shoulder—as a symbol of civil, ecclesiastical and academic authority and jurisdiction.

Designed by the renowned liturgical artist Joseph Luiz Rameriz of Axis Mundi Studios in Chicago, the DePaul University mace has been hand-crafted utilizing the finest materials and the talents of crafts-persons on two continents. The silversmith for the work was Huseyin Baykal, a distinguished Turkish artist. The silver work of the mace is called repoussé. It is a process of beating sheets of silver on dense beds of tar. The silversmith taps the silver thousands of times with steel punches to bring forth the intricacies of the envisioned design.

Measuring approximately 48 inches long, the mace is made of hand-turned yew wood. Covering the yew wood are twining silver rose stems and buds symbolizing the passage of time and the renewal of life.

Surmounting the mace is a phoenix from the university's coat of arms. The phoenix rising from the flames is both a symbol of the Resurrection of Christ and the resurrection of the City of Chicago after the Great Fire of 1871. Also at the top of the mace are enameled pendants of hearts and the crescent moon. These symbols also are taken from the coat of arms. The heart represents Saint Vincent de Paul. The crescent symbolizes Mary, the Immaculate Conception and patroness of the United States.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The presidential medallion symbolizes the authority conferred as a sacred trust by the Board of Trustees upon the president as the chief executive officer of the university. By virtue of his office, the president is personally entrusted with the responsibility of promoting the mission and values that underlie DePaul University's service to its students and its distinctive identity as a Catholic, Vincentian and urban institution.

Created in 2004 by the renowned Chicago silversmith William N. Frederick, the DePaul University presidential medallion is in the form of the university seal, cast in silver and suspended from a chain with links to the heraldic symbols of each of the university's 10 schools and colleges.

The new medallion was commissioned by the Office of Mission and Values and the Office of Academic Affairs in honor of the inauguration of the Rev. Dennis H. Holtschneider, C.M., as the university's eleventh president.

GRADUATION WITH HONOR

The bachelor's degree with honor is conferred upon candidates who have achieved exceptional scholastic proficiency. The distinction "Summa Cum Laude" is conferred upon those candidates who have demonstrated remarkable scholastic ability by attaining a 3.85 grade point average. The distinction "Magna Cum Laude" is conferred upon those candidates who have demonstrated definite superior ability by attaining a 3.7 grade point average. The distinction "Cum Laude" is conferred upon those who have distinguished themselves by attaining a 3.5 grade point average.

The level of honor is verified after spring quarter. The honor notation is recorded on the student's diploma and academic record.

The university has recognized the following graduating students as exceptional leaders who have given their time, talents and service to improving the quality of student life at DePaul. These individuals epitomized the qualities of leadership during their tenure at DePaul University.

HONORARY SOCIETIES

Since 1954, DePaul University has recognized academic honorary societies in order to highlight students' superior academic achievement and leadership. Students are selected to join honorary societies based on their superior academic record within their specific major or across all colleges. DePaul University strives to recognize students' outstanding academic performance and is proud of the rich tradition that these valuable organizations have provided to the university community. Many graduating students choose to highlight their honorary society membership by wearing academic honor chords at graduation. Below is a list of each honorary society, its academic discipline or specific group, year it was founded at DePaul University and academic honor chord colors.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT & SPEAKER

Rami Nashashibi, PhD

Founder and Executive Director, Inner-City Muslim Action Network; Class of 1996 (BA)

After graduating from DePaul University as a double major in International Studies and English, Dr. Rami Nashashibi launched a career in service that established him as a nationally recognized community organizer and faith-based activist. His work in Chicago and Atlanta confronts the challenges of poverty and disinvestment in urban communities through Muslim-led civic engagement that bridges race, class and religion. In recognition of his life-changing work, the MacArthur Foundation named him as a 2017 MacArthur Fellow, also known as the “Genius Grant.”

Born in Jordan, Nashashibi lived in several countries before settling in his mother’s hometown of Chicago. While pursuing higher education at DePaul, he became active in community organizing around racial justice and cultural sensitivity issues and, through those efforts, quickly recognized his career path.

In 1997, Nashashibi founded the Inner-City Muslim Action Network (IMAN), a community organization that fosters health, wellness and healing in the inner-city by organizing for social change, cultivating the arts, and operating a holistic health center. IMAN is dedicated to connecting the disconnected and building bridges between marginalized communities. IMAN is located on Chicago’s South Side in an ethnically and religiously diverse neighborhood that suffers from high rates of home foreclosure, unemployment and gang violence.

Under Nashashibi’s leadership, IMAN runs the Green Re-Entry program, which provides wraparound services to returning citizens and under-resourced youth, including on-the-job skills training, mentorship and transitional housing. The program reclaims and rehabilitates abandoned properties that were once havens for crime, turning them into homes and work sites for its participants.

IMAN also addresses issues of food access and racial healing through its Corner Store Campaign, which recruits local store operations to meet the nutritional needs of the community by selling fresh fruit and vegetables rather than lottery tickets and liquor. IMAN also has brought much needed access to physical, mental and dental health care to the surrounding community.

IMAN’s success is built on a foundation of cross-cultural dialogue and cooperation in the neighborhoods it serves, establishing coalitions that cut across race, ethnicity and religion to bring about economic and political changes on the South Side. While IMAN is deeply rooted in the Muslim tradition, it is also broadly informed. Wisdom from different faith traditions, community organizing theories and practices, and hip-hop culture are woven seamlessly into the lexicon of IMAN’s work.

For several years, IMAN has worked with community organizers in Atlanta who were drawn to the success of IMAN’s work in Chicago. Through this relationship, IMAN expanded its operations to Atlanta in 2016, and currently provides programming that includes transitional housing, spiritual development, basic education, life skills instruction, on-the-job construction training and job placement support.

Outside of his work with IMAN, Nashashibi earned his doctorate in sociology in 2010 from the University of Chicago. He has taught courses in religion and sociology at several Chicagoland colleges and universities, including the Chicago Theological Seminary, and lectured across the United States, Europe and Asia on topics related to American Muslim identity, community activism and social justice.

Nashashibi has received several distinctions, in addition to recognition from the MacArthur Foundation. In 2009, Chicago Public Radio named him one of the “Top 10 Chicago Global Visionaries,” and The Center for American Progress profiled Nashashibi as one of the “14 Faith Leaders to Watch in 2014.” He was named one of the “500 Most Influential Muslims in the World” by The Royal Islamic Strategic Studies Center in concert with Georgetown’s Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding. And, in 2016, former President Barack Obama appointed him as a member of the President’s Advisory Council on Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships.

CITATION

Rami Nashashibi, you have been a tireless champion for your community by tackling some of the most important issues facing Chicago, including food disparities, poverty, violence, racism and discrimination. As co-founder of the Inner-City Muslim Action Network, you have embodied Vincentian values by serving marginalized communities, confronting issues of human rights and social justice, and building bridges among people from different racial, ethnic, socio-economic and religious backgrounds. Your unyielding dedication and perseverance led the MacArthur Foundation to name you a MacArthur Fellow for your impactful Muslim-led civic engagement. Your life’s work serves as an inspiration to students, and is a testament to your liberal arts education at DePaul. You are a shining example of how young people can assess the needs of their community and take action. For these reasons and more, DePaul University is privileged to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Carol Marin

Acclaimed Journalist and Co-director, Center for Journalism Integrity and Excellence at DePaul

As a local broadcast reporter, political columnist and national correspondent, Carol Marin has established herself as a household name in Chicago for her unwavering commitment to journalistic integrity over the last four decades. In the course of her distinguished career, she has received journalism's highest honors and also has become a champion for the next generation of ethical journalists as a mentor and teacher.

Upon graduation from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Marin began her career as a reporter and anchor for WBIR-TV in Knoxville, Tennessee, and WSM-TV in Nashville. In 1978, she returned to her home town of Chicago where she began her decades-long career as a primetime news anchor for WMAQ-TV (NBC 5) and quickly became a familiar face on TV screens in living rooms across the city.

From 1997-2002, Marin made a move to CBS News, where she worked as an investigative reporter for the local WBBM-TV and as a national correspondent for CBS's news magazine programs "60 Minutes" and "60 Minutes II" and the "CBS Evening News."

In 2002, Marin and fellow producer Don Moseley left CBS to form their own company, Marin Corp Productions. Since its inception, they have produced hour-long documentary-style pieces for programs like "CNN Presents" and the Discovery Channel.

Marin's passion for journalism is mirrored by her enthusiasm for developing a new generation of journalists. Her involvement with DePaul began in 2003 when she and Moseley founded the DePaul Documentary Project (DDP) on the university's Lincoln Park Campus. The program gave students the opportunity to learn about the intricacies of reporting and produce broadcast news magazine-quality pieces. Through the years, dozens of DePaul students were listed in the credits of documentaries and stories developed by the DDP and aired by media outlets nationwide.

In 2016, the scope of the DDP and Marin's relationship with the university expanded when she and Moseley became co-directors of DePaul's Center for Journalism Integrity and Excellence, which promotes the highest ideals of journalism through theory and practice. The center teaches students how to conduct investigative journalism while adhering to the highest principles of journalism, including truth, accuracy, fairness and context. It bridges the academic and the professional worlds by giving DePaul students access to contacts and resources in the City of Chicago and newsrooms across the nation.

Today, Marin juggles her leadership of DePaul's Center for Journalism Integrity and Excellence with her work as a political editor of NBC 5 and as a regular contributor to WTTW's "Chicago Tonight."

Through it all, her dedication and hard work have not gone unnoticed by her peers. In 1997, she received the prestigious George Foster Peabody Award for her body of work. She and Moseley received another Peabody Award in 1998 for a documentary on the challenges of the facially disfigured. They also received national Emmy Awards in 1989 and 1998, and Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Awards in 1986 and 1998 for their reporting. In 2002, Marin won the Gracie Award from American Women in Radio and Television. In 2014, she and then-Sun-Times colleagues Tim Novak and Chris Fusco won the George Polk Award for local reporting that led police to reopen a 10 year-old homicide case. And in 2016, she was part of the NBC 5 news team that received a Peabody for its investigation of the Chicago Police shooting of 17-year-old Laquan McDonald.

In recognition of Marin's renowned career, DePaul presented her an honorary degree in 1998. In addition, she has been honored by the Chicago journalism community with numerous local Emmys, inducted into the Chicago Journalism Hall of Fame in 1992, and in 2002, she was included in the Silver Circle of the Chicago/Midwest chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.
