Important: Application Completion and Review Process

Additional Application Materials:

- A personal statement not exceeding two pages is required
- Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts for all degrees received are required
- A current resume is required and should not exceed two pages
- Letters of recommendation, while optional, are highly recommended

Please sign the application and send it, along with the personal statement, all official undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and resume via email to Gradlaw@depaul.edu or mail to the Office of Law Admissions, DePaul University College of Law, 25 E. Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois 60604-2287, USA.

The Admissions Committee will review your application only when it is complete, including the application form, application fee, all official undergraduate and graduate transcripts, resume and personal statement. Once your file is complete you should receive a decision in approximately 2 to 3 weeks.

For international applicants only:

DePaul University requires that students with bachelor's or master's degrees earned outside of the U.S. submit official educational credentials and evaluation fee to one of the organizations approved by the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES). A general evaluation verifying the degree and the U.S. grade point average is sufficient. A current list of NACES members can be viewed at <http://www.naces.org/members.html>.

After receiving your credentials, the company you have chosen will submit their general evaluation directly to DePaul along with certified copies of the credentials you submitted for evaluation. These documents will be used for your admission review please do not submit any educational credentials directly to DePaul University.

In addition, applicants educated in international countries, at institutions where English is not the primary language, must also register for the TOEFL or IELTS. Applicants who register for the TOEFL must advise Educational Testing Service (ETS) to send their TOEFL score to DePaul University College of Law (institution code 1165). The minimum requirement for TOEFL/IELTS score is 90 on the iBT, 577 on the PBT or 6.5 on the IELTS.
