

IRWIN W. STEANS CENTER 2024-25 COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICE LEARNING CALENDAR

The Irwin W. Steans Center offers many pathways to community engagement for students, faculty members, and community partners, including:

- Community-based Service Learning Workshops/Refresher Sessions
- One-One Course Consultation
- Certificate Program
- Faculty Community Immersion Institute
- Community-based Research Funding
- The Community Service Studies Minor
- Inside-Out Prison Education Program
- Student Internship and Scholarship Programs

Workshop Registration

Introductory Video

Resources & Special Events

- Collaboratory - database for faculty, community partners, and staff work
- Asset-Based Community Development Trainings
- Annual Service Speaks Conference: Community-Engaged students share their learning for the year. Monday, May 19, 2025, 10AM - 1PM, Lincoln Park Student Center

Activities will be held virtually on Zoom.

Workshop One, Virtual

Watch prior to sessions. Access the YouTube video by clicking on "Introductory Video"

WINTER QUARTER

January 31, 10am-12pm

Workshop: "Authentic and Productive Community Partnerships"

February 14, 10am-12pm

Workshop: "Diversified Approaches to Reflection"

February 28, 10am-12pm

Workshop: "Negotiating Identity in the Classroom and the Community"

SPRING QUARTER

April 11, 10am-12pm

Workshop: "Authentic and Productive Community Partnerships"

April 25, 10am-12pm

Workshop: "Diversified Approaches to Reflection"

May 9, 10am-12pm

Workshop: "Negotiating Identity in the Classroom and the Community"

June 17-18

2-Day Faculty Community Immersion Institute