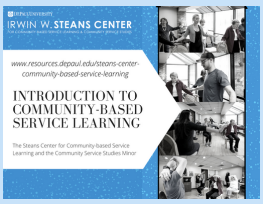
IRWIN W. STEANS CENTER 2022-23
COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICE LEARNING CALENDAR

The Irwin W. Steans Center offers many pathways to community engagement for students, faculty members, and community partners, including:

- Community-based Service Learning Workshops
- One-One Course Consultation
- Certificate Program
- Faculty Learning Circles
- Faculty Community Immersion Institute
- Community-based Research Funding
- The Community Service Studies Minor
- Inside-Out Prison Education Program
- Student Internship and Scholarship Programs

"Introduction to Community-based Service Learning" Online Workshop



Recommended before attending any other workshop. Available on our Youtube Channel: DePaul University Steans Center.

Resources & Special Events

- Online Community Engagement - Steans resource to complement community-based service learning
- Collaboratory - data base for faculty, community partner, and staff work
- Asset-Based Community Development Trainings
- Annual Service Speaks Conference: Community-Engaged students share their learning for the year. Monday, May 15, 2023, 10AM - 2PM, Lincoln Park Student Center

Activities will be held in person, unless later determined.

Friday, October 7 10-Noon
Workshop: "Authentic and Productive Community Partnerships"

Friday, October 21 10-Noon
Workshop: "Diversified Approaches to Reflection"

Friday, November 4 10-Noon
Workshop: "Negotiating Identity in the Classroom and the Community"

Tuesday, December 6 10-Noon
STEM Workshop for Faculty, Community Partners, and Students

Thursday, January 12 10-Noon
Workshop: "Authentic and Productive Community Partnerships"

Thursday, January 26 10-Noon
Workshop: "Diversified Approaches to Reflection"

Thursday, February 9 10-Noon
Workshop: "Negotiating Identity in the Classroom and the Community"

Friday, April 7 10-Noon
Workshop: "Authentic and Productive Community Partnerships"

Friday, April 21 10-Noon
Workshop: "Diversified Approaches to Reflection"

Friday, May 5 10-Noon
Workshop: "Negotiating Identity in the Classroom and Community"

June 22 - 23
2-Day Faculty Community Immersion Institute