Global Learning Experience (GLE)

STUDENT SURVEY QUESTIONS

Thank you so much for your interest in the instrument that we use to evaluate Global Learning Experience (a.k.a. virtual exchange) projects at DePaul University. We are happy to share the questions with you; we would only ask that you:

- Communicate to us at gleprogram@depaul.edu if/when you start implementing the instrument in your courses.
- Acknowledge in your materials/ data collection/ results reports that the questions were developed by the Global Engagement team at DePaul University.
- Refer anyone else interested in obtaining the questions, to contact DePaul's GLE team at gleprogram@depaul.edu.
- Agree to collaborate in sharing data collected using the instrument (US institutions: you may need to contact your IRB office)

In order to benefit the virtual exchange community of practice and have the possibility of comparing/ combining survey data results in the future, we encourage you to keep the exact same order of questions, and same response scale for each set of questions

If, after reviewing the instrument, you would like to suggest some improvements or modifications, please email us at gleprogram@depaul.edu, we are always open to a dialogue.

Cordially,

The GLE team
