

Reflecting on Your Life Timeline

Student Version

Instructions: Think about the impactful events, gifts, and surprises that you have experienced throughout your life. Identify each event with a title and place them chronologically on the timeline. When you are finished, answer the reflection question below.

What did you discover about yourself and the things that are important to you?